

1860 • 2010
 CHIARLI
 150 ANNI

Dry

Violet-shaded rosé, delicate, well-structured, with intense fragrances of strawberries and raspberries and a lively round taste. Lambrusco's Grasperossa grape and Pinot Nero. Seductive.

Brut de Noir Rose

1860 • 2010
 CHIARLI
 150 ANNI

Semi-Sweet

Very big, dense and creamy in the mouth, with solid underlying structure giving shape to the black cherry and dark plum flavors. The tannins are broad and fine on the long, thick finish.

*“Centenario”
 Lambrusco
 Grasperossa di Castelvetro
 Amabile*

1860 • 2010
 CHIARLI
 150 ANNI

Semi-Dry

Clear fragrances of strawberry and brushwood with a palate that is fresh, pervasive, mineral, and at the same time velvety and surprisingly pleasant. Dynamic.

*“Vecchia Modena”
 Lambrusco
 di Sorbara*

1860 • 2010
 CHIARLI
 150 ANNI

Dry

Vigneto Cialdini is a deep color which foreshadows intense, but never excessive aromas. It combines roundness and austerity, telling in detail of its terroir. A wine with pronounced body and fading froth.

*“Vigneto Cialdini”
 Lambrusco
 Grasperossa di Castelvetro*