

ILLAHE is a Chinook Jargon word meaning "earth," "land," or "soil." ILLAHE Vineyards was established in 2000 by Lowell Ford, grower of Oregon grapes since 1983.

This Pinot Noir is polished, focused and distinctive for the rose petal and chamomile tea accents to the plump core of currant, cherry and spice flavors dancing lightly through a long, delicate finish.

